Award-Winning Mentalist Duo Astound the World Over

Annapolis, MD...

If you have never heard of the Evasons, you will – very soon. That’s because Jeff and Tessa Evason are coming your way to perform their incredible brand of mind power, and it’s a show that generates a great deal of amazement – and enthusiasm.

Since 1983 the Evasons, who are based in Toronto and Annapolis, have astounded audiences the world over. Their performance is a mind-blowing repertoire of paranormal feats. Audiences react with wide-eyed wonder when Tessa and Jeff demonstrate their skills in ESP, telepathy, super memory, prediction, telekinesis and levitation.

This slick blend of interactive demonstration, comic relief and spellbinding entertainment is definitely not a magic show. There are no gimmicks, no wires, no hidden microphones. In fact, the Evasons offer $25,000 to anybody who can prove otherwise. The experience defies explanation. And maybe that’s why the crowds go wild at every show.

There’s never a dull moment for Jeff and Tessa, who spend much of their year on the road entertaining audiences at college or corporate events, theatres, cruises or casino showrooms. They have also performed their acts to audiences in the millions through network television programs. On NBC’s World’s Greatest Magic V, they were called: “The finest act of its kind in the world,” while their performance on Fox’s Powers of the Paranormal was touted as: “The most amazing mind reading act you’ve ever seen.” In fact, the Discovery Channel hails them as: “A new generation of mentalists.”

It’s no wonder that Siegfried & Roy named The Evasons their favorite act, awarding them the prestigious SARMOTI Award at the World Magic Seminar in Las Vegas. They are a class act, recognized by their peers and fans alike as the finest mentalist duo in the world. Their stylish presentation and stunning showcase of talent has also earned them the distinction of being the Psychic Entertainers Association’s Performers Of The Year.

“Many times during our show, people are totally speechless because they’ve never seen anything like this before.” said Jeff Evason. “One moment in particular, the Spirit Slates, is absolutely shocking. Afterwards, we ask how many people got goosebumps and a lot of hands go up!”

Tessa enjoys talking with people after the show. She explained, “Jeff and I are fortunate to have a close connection. A lot of people are searching for their Soul Mate. We’re all unique and we have different strengths and weaknesses. If we allow ourselves to trust our intuition and learn to tap into our inner self, we can make much better decisions about important personal matters.”

Jeff and Tessa think it's good for people to be skeptical and to ask questions about things they don't understand. "We often ask how many in the audience have called the TV Psychic Hotlines," said Tessa. "And when we ask if they called back a second time, no hands go up." Jeff adds "It's not like Mrs. Cleo. Our goal is to entertain and inspire our audience. Hopefully we give everybody an experience they will never forget!"

Tessa and Jeff don't ask you to believe, but once you see her blindfolded, calling out the names of strangers or reciting the serial numbers from a bill in an audience member's pocket, it gets a lot easier to suspend your disbelief.

Go to their show and find out for yourself.
